We are very serious about protecting your privacy. Your trust is our most important asset. This privacy policy explains how ASDTi Ltd (advisers to Greater Manchester Education Trust and Whalley Range 11-18 High School) may collect information from you via our websites and how that information may be used subsequently. If you have any queries in relation to this privacy policy, please contact us.

By browsing and using our website, you agree to this policy governing your use of the website. If you do not accept this policy, you must not use our website.

This policy applies only to this vacancy, its website, and to all other websites created by ASDTi, and not to other websites outside of the ASDTi Limited Group, to which we may provide links (for example OFSTED). These 'outside' websites (such as OfSTED) are not subject to our privacy policy. You are advised to read the privacy policy of such other websites.

If a site we have created includes video (as many do), the video will be hosted by YouTube or Vimeo. YouTube and Vimeo have their own policies regarding data collection and the use of cookies, and you should read those on Vimeo or Google's policies page (Google is the owner of YouTube). ASDTi is not responsible for these policies.

We may change our privacy policy from time to time without notification, so you

1. Collection of information when browsing our websites

In order to provide the services you want, and to allow you to experience a more personalised service when you revisit us, (for example to show you our cookie and privacy policy when you first visit, but not every single time when you re-visit us within a short period), we use cookies – but only in a very limited way. We ONLY use session cookies, and these are deleted when you close your browser window. We do not use any other form of cookie-based information-gathering or tracking when you simply browse our sites. Remember, however, that external sites, to which we link (such as OFSTED), or from whom video is streamed (such as Vimeo and/or YouTube) will have their own policies in this regard which you should read on their sites.

If you use our recruitment services such as on www.wrhead.co.uk, and request details of a vacancy from us, we ask for your name, address, school or college name, position held, telephone number and email address. We then send the documents you have requested by e-mail (and by post, if you request a printed copy). We use these details to send you (a) reminders when the vacancy is closing; (b) additional copies of the application papers if you mislay them; (c) feedback on your application and its success; (d) if you are not successful, we use this information to send you details of similar vacancies that arise, in which we think you might be interested – these latter e-mails will be limited to an average of two per year. You may contact us to ask that your details be deleted, or to refine the types of roles for which you wish to receive information. We will always comply promptly with such requests.
